Stanford Department of Public Safety participates in National Coffee with a Cop Day on October 4th, 2023

Stanford, CA – The Stanford Department of Public Safety is excited to announce the return of its popular "Coffee with Cops" event, just in time for National Coffee with a Cop Day. Join us on October 4th, 2023, from 9:00 AM to 11:00 AM at Starbucks in Tressider Union for an engaging and informal opportunity to connect with our dedicated law enforcement officers.

National Coffee with a Cop Day, celebrated across the United States, encourages open dialogue between community members and the police in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. The Stanford Department of Public Safety is proud to participate in this nationwide initiative by hosting its own event at the heart of Stanford University.

The "Coffee with Cops" event will provide an excellent platform for students, faculty, staff, and community members to meet and chat with our deputies. It's a perfect opportunity to get to know the men and women who work tirelessly to keep our campus safe and secure. Whether you have questions, concerns, or just want to have a friendly conversation, our officers will be more than happy to connect with you.

In addition to casual conversations over coffee, attendees will have the chance to learn about various initiatives and programs offered by the Stanford Department of Public Safety. Discover the upcoming Community Public Safety Academy, where you can gain valuable insights into law enforcement and community safety. Our deputies will also be available to discuss other community safety initiatives and answer any questions you may have.

We are grateful to Starbucks for their generous support, as they will be providing free coffee to all attendees throughout the event.
