

A Stanford
community course

Stanford | Department of Public Safety

exploring campus public safety

Wednesday nights 5:30 - 7:30pm

Dinner provided for registered participants

Explore roles, responsibilities & services provided by DPS & Engage in discussion and experiential learning.

Diverse topics and scenarios like traffic stops, field sobriety testing lab, and the use of force

1 unit available to Stanford Students (LAWGEN 209Q)

The course sessions are intended to enrich your knowledge of working in campus public safety, cultivate relationships, and foster understanding with the community to which we all belong.

Application and info at police.stanford.edu Stanford students, staff, faculty, and community over 18 can apply join us!

